Hallowed Peak (2023) Story Recaps

1 - UNLUCKY FOR SOME — Perigate recruits you to infiltrate the Pocket Mayoral Campaign and help unlock a box they have found. After your usual investigation, you find it belonged to Mayor Nazabod. Opening it reveals a cursed mask — which you can choose to warn Perigate about or lie and tell them it's for good luck.

2 - POCKET GETS CANCELLED — Pocket has been cancelled thanks to a speech he gave and a painting of Jonas...as a bald man. You try to convince Pocket that the painting is hurting their chances — they share their apology and you learn Platman has also been cancelled. You find mention of The Lady — who helped Sandra from HR before (Bloody Sandra!) and learn you can pass the cancellation on by passing the curse causing it to a willing person — so you convince Littlefield to take the hit! You pass the gossip to Halloway to spread about town.

3 - KILLING WITH KINDNESS - Dr Winter is unhappy again - this time because someone is spreading nice rumors about him around town. You ask around and find a TV show called The Kind Doctor. Turns out to be propaganda made by the gnomes who want Winter to lead them but think the general Gnome population might need some softening up first. You convince Winter to take the job, crowning him and even receiving a rare compliment!

4 - FIVE NIGHTS AT ROBO DJ'S — Spectre thinks RoboDJ needs checking on - you watch some CCTV with RoboDJ trying a jumpscare. Sparks has also seen them moving about at night and sets you to research the manufacturer. After some digging, you learn they used Mayor Nazabod's brain to make Robo DJ — and they want an alliance with Pocket — you convince the incumbent mayor to take the deal

5 - TRICK OR TREAT — You look into Terrence the Talking Platypus's campaign, being run by Perigate, and discover that while they promise to leave Sparks alone, they are actually being nice to make a demon target Sparks for death! To save Sparks, you need to insult them...it's for their own good!

Hallowed Peak (2023) Story Recaps

6 - THE DEVIL'S DUES - Cogwright doesn't rate Spectre and needs a paranormal investigator — so you volunteer! They're having issues with Aggrogoth — A demon you previously helped to gain a job at Jonaco! You contact them and they point to a video which looks like an ad from Spectre and Vox. It sounds like Spectre's business is in trouble, and it's Cogwright's fault! You convince Cogwright that this demon is too powerful for freelance paranormal investigators, and that their only hope is to purchase Spectre's S.A.F.E.G.U.A.R.D. plan

7 - COSMIC COUNTERPARTS — Pius isn't feeling great - they seem nervous about the Infernal Echidna and ask you to help. After digging around you learn about Succulent Skies and their pilot brothers Brutus and Pinkerton. eventually you learn (with some diamant involvement) that Pius is an amalgam of the brothers- PInkerton and brutUS = PIUS

8 - SPIRIT OF THE SEASON - Hogwood has a new film but no monster! It apparently came out of the screen and went on a rampage in the Old Town, leaving blue marks everywhere. On analysis, you discover the blue marks are from all the Jonajuice Hogwood has been drinking - and she's hallucinating! You warn her about the dangers of the tasty blue stuff...

9 - MUM'S THE WORD - Halloway is missing their mum who has seems to have gone somewhere. You do a bit of digging around town and find out that she's moved onto the afterlife and the note Halloway thought was a demanding IOU was actually a loving last message - I Heart You!

10 — I KNOW WHAT YOU DID LAST WINTERMAS - Datchery has been getting threatening letters about what she did last Wintermas and asks for help. You analyse the handwriting with the helpful flowchart Datchery provides and end up at Winters Lab, where you discover Datchery is writing the notes themselves - they had a memory wipe due to causing the Great Rock Fall with an unfortunate rock throw and the lunar festival is messing with things. You either tell Datchery the truth, or lie and say Leadbelly is behind it all...

Secret Trail:

11 — CHAOS REIGNS — You see a message from Furbish...the election is a sham (clearly!!) and he will only resurface when he is ready! You also discover that Jonaco has sent send Spectre a piece of diamant under the name of Miraco (CLEVER!) which seems to hold a particularly twisted soul...
