2023 Special Event Story Recaps

London Film and Comic Con

1 – No "I" in Conspiracy - Winter is trying to recruit tourists for his evil schemes. However, during your testing and induction, you catch a Videomatic of an intern who has been trapped and is being forced to make forms for the doctor. Pocket is informed, and starts euthanasia proceedings against the intern!

2 – The Perfect Subject - Cogwright has been talking to what he believes is a clone. After some digging, Winter explains a code you found is associated with Time Travel! It appears Cogwright tried to warn their past self about the dig at Phantom Peak - which you prove by way of delayed dental work!

3 – The Biggest Short - You find a hidden poster from Madame Mechanica and proceed to collect Pockets "autograph" (it was LFCC!) by stealth for Madame Mechnica's rank 2 assistant, Cogwright. Madame Mechanica then uses this to rob Pocket blind!

Big Summer Blow Out

Special – Platypus on the Rocks - You start at the saloon with a code telling you to go to the summerhouse and look under the table. Doing so gives you a mail code that leads to a Videomatic code hidden in the bathroom mirrors. It's Madame Mechanica, with a code phrase to end the trail back at the saloon to show your allegiance.
