Summer At The Peak — Starlit Summer (2024) Story Recaps

1 - Time After Time

Hogwood has a problem - she keeps remembering the end of the Festival of Innovation as 3 different outcomes! She asked for your help understanding why! You do your usual investigations and find that the Jonahedeon is messing with the town and making everyone relive the same on day over and over again - Hogwood can see it because of their stint stuck in the axiomatic clocks other dimension!

2 - The Real Thing

Lovehart - from Jonaco Marketing - has a problem...and it's Jonacola! Weird things are happening to those who drink it so you set off to try and get to the bottom of things. You discover the caramel flavour in JonaCola is causing divorced dads to explode - something to do with it reacting with fat in the body. Perigate refuses to admit a problem (cos that would make Jonaco look bad) so instead tasks you to rebrand the drink for Lovehart.

3 - Whiskers In The Dark

Spectre is looking for a lawyer to represent them in a case involving them avoiding tax! You learn Platman is a authorised judge and make contact. You then learn the summons is fake and find out the person who is named as the issuer of the summons is actually dead! You find a racoon instead in a trenchcoat and discover a team of demon racoons headed by Fritz who have stolen the Phrenograph. They also stole Robodocs kidney (actually a detonator) and are building a bomb to blow up Spectre as revenge. You find it in the mirrors and help Spectre disarm it

4 - Pocket Dial

Pocket needs a coach due to getting into a fight with Jacques The Jock due to the small fact he KILLED CHONKY CHUCK - Jonas's horse. You become a diplomat and learn that The Jock loves Cheese! You arrange cheese as a gift but it just causes more offence due to the Cheese Wars!

He said only the resurrection of Chonky Chuck will bring peace! You find out about Krazy Keith the Necromancer who might be able to help who directs you to Littlefield, their apprentice who sends you to the Paracryptic mirror to finish the resurrection. Unfortunately you create a moth-horse monster (proof Littlefield has MOTH hair and not Jonas's hair!) who attacked Revenant Canyon! You tell Pocket to call the Mayor to smooth things over - which means a sweaty dance at the close of the festival!

5 - Skytanic

Perigate is looking for Parental Advisors and you offer your help. Her parents have left clown swimwear but Perigate is afraid of clowns and can't swim! You look for them in the old town and find a videomatic from her parents saying they want to revisit all of Perigates failures. It appears her parents have signed her up for Skytanic to improve her. The only way for to her to avoid it...death! You convince Halloway she's dead and get an obituary videomatic. But it doesn't fool her parents...but you figure blowing up the ship might work? You learn from Sparks that Klacky can access controls for steering Skybergs and crash the Skytanic. You learn Perigates parents have left her a present - you pass on how to find it

6 - Post Nuclear Family

Littlefield has started an unofficial Jonas Fan Group and you attempt to join. As you go, you learn Jonas's parent are in trouble so you watch a documentary on them and Jonas's childhood. To try and meet the parents you go to Perigate who runs the official club for help. You "meet" the parent at Mt Absmore and keep digging, finding a half finished musical about Jonas - Jonas didn't approve of reference to the parents! - who's writer was pulled into the axiomatic clock. Exploring the clock leads you to a video and you learn that Dr Winter has the "Precious Cargo"... Shrunken Parents of Jonas - and they were shrunken by order of Jonas! Jonas always thought their parents kept them back

7 - Death and Taxes

Datchery is looking for pirates! She has a map and she thinks her father may have buried some riches. You take the map and find an empty chest belonging to Ankh Solar - aka a Loan Shark! And this this one is an actual giant shark! You find out the way to save Datchery is to throw her father's ashes into the canal to appease the Shark.

8 - Failure to Launch

Dr Winter has an advert looking for morons on the noticeboard. You present yourself and find they're upset about Dr Jorum getting the recent JASA vacancy and they want your help to get rid of them. You enter basic training which involves a special handshake and a task for Dr Jorum. As you go you learn about Apricot 12 and the fact Jorum caused that disaster! You cant get them fired due to nepotism so you arrange via Klacky to launch them into the sun and tell Winter what they need to do!

9 - Cosmic Conjurations

The Church of the Cosmic Platypus is in a fight against evil and Pius is asking for help invading MonsterMon! You find out about Team P - Pockets team - and take on Team T (Terrence's team) but get battered. Terrence taunts you that only his rival - Lovehart - has beaten them. You grab a Bureausaur card and beat Terrance and learn the rest of the prophecy needs you to give Pius your Bureausaur card

10 - Love Is Blind

Halloway thinks they're being pranked - someone in town is trying to make them think they're being haunted. You look into Spirit Sceptics and they point to Sparks, who believes in someone called Goldeneye Barry. You find a broadcast where the Spirit Sceptics get actually haunted! And it killed Jimmy! You find out about Barclay - Halloways old camp mate - who did the deed, and try to meet them at Mt Absmore. Instead you find their love notes and realise they are in love with Halloway. You find some eyes from Littlefield and use them to contact Barclay.

Secret trail: 11 - Ocean of Silence

You speak to Sparks about their encounter with a star and follow the steps to a videomatic with Dr Jorum (possibly from another timeline) who has crash landed on the moon and left a message with a Jonahedron. He thinks something is following him - he says it's just like an episode of The Adventures of Platman - so you ask Rexford what they know about it - it's an episode where Platman crashes on the moon and has to fight all sorts of monsters! You ask Platman to see if they can help Jorum escape the same fate and learn about Operation Moonshot - a plan that will apparently change everything and realign the balance of the universe.... Pocket has heard that there is 2 halves of something - one down here and one up there! They bribe you with a card to keep your silence
